ShareLah

Split the bill, not the friendship.

A Malaysian app for planning hangouts, splitting bills and settling up with friends and family.

THE PROBLEM

Someone pays.
Everyone says “transfer later”

Expense sharing is a lengthy and messy process.

Balances get buried in the WhatsApp group chat.

Chasing friends and family for money feels awkward.

PLAN THE HANGOUT

Plan. Suggest. Vote.

01

Plan

Before splitting the expense, plan the trip too.

Start a hangout for your group.

02

Suggest

Members of a group join the hangout.

Everyone adds their own ideas.

03

Vote

Everyone votes on the suggested ideas, so the group chooses together.

HOW IT WORKS

Snap. Split. Settle.

01

Snap

Capture the receipt. All the details filled automatically for you.

02

Split

Split it your way. Divide it evenly or by line item.

03

Settle

Track who owes what and settle up easily with friends and family.

TWO WAYS TO SPLIT

Split it the way the bill actually went.

Evenly

Everyone pays the same share.

By line item

Assign each item to whoever had it.

INSIDE THE APP

Shared and personal, in one place.

Home

Net balance and outstanding amounts at a glance.

Groups

Shared expenses with friends, split any way you like.

Stats

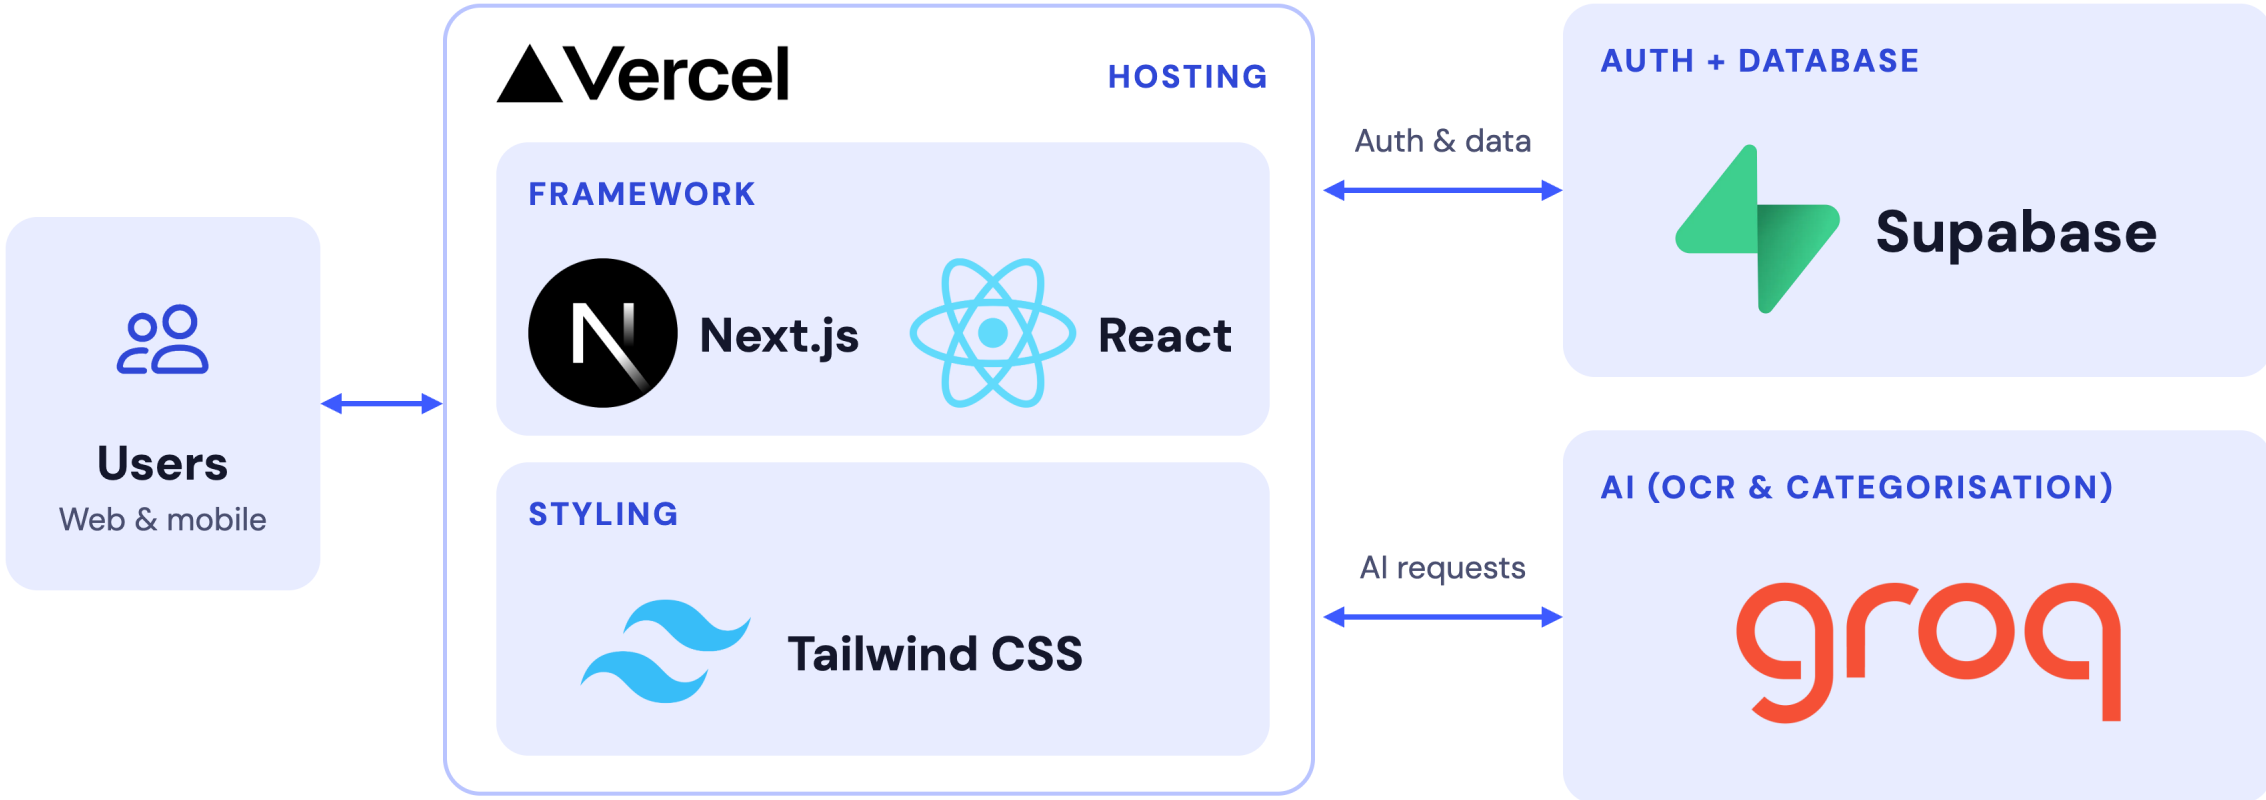

Your spending, in one view.

Self

Personal expenses tracked next to shared ones.

Four things I'd love to know

1. Where did you get stuck?
2. What's missing?
3. Would you use it with your friends?
4. What's a feature you still need?
